

The Dedmon Connection

March 1998 - Number 1

(Dedmon, Dedman, Deadman, Deadmon, Dedmond, Dedmond, etc.)

Editorial

Hello, this is my first attempt at doing a project like this. I am attempting to revive the paper that Jackie Dedman edited for several years. She has been a source of encouragement to me to do this. I certainly need your help. This is my feeble effort to provide the "family" an opportunity to publish information in hopes of finding our long-lost relatives. I will do the best I can to provide information of interest. Genealogy is a wonderful hobby, it has opened up a new world of friends and relatives. I have met folks in the last two years that I never knew existed and many of them are kinsfolk.

You may submit articles concerning the Deadman and varied spellings of any "branch" of the tree. We will mention other "related" surnames as space permits. You can send them via email or snail mail

One of the best ways to communicate with our "on-line" family is with the instant messenger. (AIM) America On-line subscribers are very familiar with this aspect of "talking" on the net. With instant messenger you can send real time messages to any AOL member and all others who have downloaded and installed the FREE software. Do it right now and send me your screen name. If you are already on AOL or have AIM, you also need to send your screen name. The limitation of AIM is that you can only "talk" one on one, while AOL members are able to participate in private group chats. In the near future I hope to establish an internet chat room for our use.

Send me your old stories or articles Come on!!! Dig into that old shoe box in the closet and bring out the goodies!!!!

I REMEMBER MOM

by Danny A. McBee

I would like to be one of the first contributors to the new Dedmon Connection. I, too, hope that we can stimulate interest in our Dedmon, Dedmond, Deadman, Dedmond family. Thanks to Leroy Dedmon I have recently added two new Dedmon descendants to my database. They were sent to Leroy by Cindy Dedmond Johnson. This is how we preserve our Dedmon ancestry. One person at a time. We have added Cathleen Erin Tierney and Keegan Robert Dedmond to our Dedmon(d) family.

I would like to see each of us tell stories of our own families, our parents, and grandparents so we can know more of our ancestors and family. I will start with one of only three letters I ever received from my mother, Dorothy Dorthea Dedmond McBee, while I was in the U. S. Air Force from 1967-1971: Sept.29.1967

Hi Danney a fue lines to let you no we ar oll well Hop you the seam. honey i woked up last night at 12 a clock thankin of you. and i prade for you a long time. and i felt like you neded a little money so i am sendin you some. i did not get to go to town to get the stamps you wanted. So you get them. I love you from mother

This letter shows you a little about my mother Dorothy. She was a very loving, caring, and giving person. She loved her children. This letter touches me each time I read it because I feel the love. As you can see, my mother's spelling was not very good as she only went to the 3rd grade. She was a brilliant woman however. She was a wonderful mother. I miss her each and every day. She was a true Dedmon(d)

My last comment is one of thanks to George "Leroy" Dedmon for his web page and all his hard work at getting our family history together on one page. I am willing to contribute any of my information to anyone who would like it. I, in turn, look forward to receiving information via our new Dedmon Connection On-line Newsletter. God Bless you all. Danny A. McBee, Dedmond descendant.

JORDON COOK WEDS

Jordan Elizabeth Cook and Matthew Andrew Clark were married in London, England

About three hundred years ago the Dedmon (Deadman) family arrived in Baltimore, MD from England. Now one of the descendents returns to the "cradle of our ancestors"; for her wedding. Jordan Elizabeth Cook and Matthew Andrew Clark were married January 25, 1998, at the Kensington Rooftop Gardens in London, England.

Jordon Elizabeth Cook, daughter of Elizabeth Anne Dedmon Cook marries Matthew Andrew Clark in an impressive ceremony. In attendance was several of the Dedmon family. Elizabeth Anne Dedmon Cook is the great-great granddaughter of William D. Dedmon. Her father is Roy Lane Dedmon.
