ARE WE HAVING FUN YET??

LEROY DEDMON

It is difficult to realize how swiftly the pages of time do turn. In just a few weeks, if I am alive, I will celebrate my 75th birthday. In some ways this seems to be a long time but on the other hand it is as described by James in the bible, "just a vapor". The earliest I remember is something that happened when I was four years old according to my mother. I also remember a couple of things just before turning six, but for the most part my memory begins with starting to school. It is a fact that "time does not stand still" and "waits for no man". Each year seems to go faster than the one before. I can't believe this is the 85th newsletter I have published for the family and I can only hope you enjoy reading them as much as I enjoy doing them. The first one was March, 1998 and consisted of two pages and I thought it was a "masterpeice". The ones to follow were from 4-6 pages and it was probably around volume 20 that became 8 pages and remained except for a few "special issues".

MAKALA CELEBRATES NUMBER 3

"I AM THIS MANY NOW"

It's hard to believe my great granddaughter, Makala Nicole Webb is now three years old. She was born on April 26, 2011, do the math. They do grow up in a hurry. I remember very well when my daughter Gwen, my granddaughter Carrie and another great granddaughter, Masie were three years old. Masie became a teenager earlier this year as she became 13 on March 15 and Carrie's birthday was May 16th. We were out of town and missed Masie's birthday, but we were able to attend Makala's 3 year party. Pictured to the right are all four girls around the same age.

BRADLEY DEDMON TURNS 3, PARENTS CELEBRATE TENTH

BRADLEY

My nephew, Craig Dedmon and his wife, Brittany Walker Dedmon, recently celebrated their 10th anniversary on April 24th. Their son Bradley turned 3 on March 4th. Craig is the son of Connie Buff and Joseph William "Bill" Dedmon. Bill is my youngest brother. He preaches in Bowdon, GA and serves as an elder.

BIRTHDAYS AND WEDDINGS

It always brings back memories when I am told that one of my kinsfolk is having a birthday. Being the oldest of my siblings, I remember when most of their offspring was born. I even remember March 1, 1947 when my youngest brother, Bill was born. It was a surprise to all of us when mother went to the hospital and brought back a baby brother. I guess we were not observant to mother's gaining weight for the previous nine months. It was good to grow up with two brothers as it made for a good pitcher, catcher and batter combination. Yes, you may have figured that out, I pitched, Tommy caught and Bill batted. I made a good catcher out of Tommy and a good hitter out of Bill, but for some reason I never developed to achieve my dreams as a professional baseball pitcher. However, in latter years I did become a slow pitch softball pitcher, but it is just not the same.

My sister Carolyn was born on January 11, 1941, and my other sister, Ruth was born on July 24 1942, and my brother Tommy was born on November 4, 1943, but I don't remember any of those. Since I was born on June 27, 1939, you can caculate that in just a little over four years there were four of us. Bill is four years younger than Tommy. That still makes five in less that eight years.

Being the oldest, I have had the privilege of watching the family grow. Counting our mates there are at the present around 56 descendents of mom and dad. We have lost some by divorce and very few by death. My sister Ruth has lost two husbands. She married Carl Hamby right out of High School in 1960 and about 18 months later he was killed in a car wreck on December 31, 1961. She then married Don Smith in 1963 and by that union had two children, Steve and Amy. Don passed away on July 16, 2005. (See volume 38).

I preformed the wedding ceremony for my brother, Bill in 1971, my daughter, Gwen in 1980, my son, Gary in 1983, my granddaughter, Carrie in 2000, my grandson, Jonathan Dedmon in 2010, my nephew, Steve Smith, in 1987 and my niece, Jeniffer Dedmon in 2007. The first wedding I performed was for my cousin, Tommy Gilbert, who married Ann McCall and I also preformed the ceremony for Jane's niece (well mine too), Sandy Morton in 1981. Just recently I "tied the knot" for Sean Kiley, who is the son of my daughter's husband George.

SEAN KILEY AND JENIFFER LAUDA

On May 3rd, 2014, I was privileged to officiate at the wedding of Sean Francis Kiley and Jeniffer Nicole

"TILL DEATH DO US PART..."

Lauda. Sean is the son of my daughter's husband, George Kiley. The wedding was at the beautiful Ashven Estate in Villa Rica, Carroll County, GA. The bride was given away by her father, Art Lauda. The best man was A.J. Scott and the maid of honor was Brandy Brooks. Other members of the wedding party were groomsmen Devan Kiley and River Truitt and the bridesmaids were Mazie Truitt and Abbey Webb. Bella Kiley and Kaylee Webb were flower girls. The event was followed by a "cocktail" hour

JENIFFER AND HER FATHER,

"NO COMMENT..."

where the guests were served drinks and appetizers while the wedding party was being photographed.

The reception consisted of a delicious meal of prime rib and Chicken Cordon Bleu and all the trimmings.

"I PRESENT TO YOU..."
MR. AND MRS. SEAN KILEY

From my point of view, everyone seemed to have a great time and the comments I heard were "such a beautiful wedding".

"THERE YOU GO..."

Kevin Spencer Broome marries Lindsey Dian Fulp

The wedding was held, Saturday April 26, 2014 at Camp Tygart in Ray City, GA. Kevin is the grandson of Tommy Broome, a Dedmon descendent. Kevin's parents, Spencer and Renee Broome were members at the Bremen congregation, where he served as a deacon, when I preached there. They were diligent workers with the youth and developed a very successful Annual Youth Rally. They now live in Valdosta, GA, and heavily involved in Latin American Missions. I have written about the Broome family on several occasions as our paths have crossed often.

...Just the GOOD NEWS

MICHAEL BROOME RECEIVES DOCTORS DEGREE IN PHARMACY

Michael is the son of Terry Broom, who is my fourth cousin. Actually according to Family Tree Makeer we are related 4 times. (3rd cousin once removed, 4th cousin, 4th cousin twice removed and 5th cousin once removed) I have not figured all that out but his great grandmother was Caroline Caldonia "Callie" Dedmon, the daughter of Thomas W. and Mary Jane "Janie" Dedmon. Thomas and Janie were cousins. Here is a note from Terry posted on his facebook page:

I want to share with my Friends the great joy and thankfulness I feel in my heart this morning that we've come to the day when our Son, Michael, walks across the stage to receive his Doctors Degree in Pharmacy. He and Christie have sacrificed and worked together to keep their lives as normal as possible in their home, their heavy involvements in the church work, their devotion to God, each other, their children, all of us as their family, and to many of you who are their friends, all the while spending "endless" hours in heavy study over these past four years!!! The journey was hard, but their faith sustained them! A Father could hardly think of a way to be any prouder than to witness their personal victory.

Now off to work and to pass the licensing exams to be certified! He begins at Publix Pharmacy Tuesday.

Prayerfully, they are expecting child number three in September!

From the Mail Bag

From: John Henson

Just in case you are planning on a garden this Spring I have attached a photo of Audrey and me. John and Shandelle had this made for our 2013 Christmas present. I hope this note finds all of you well. Love, Audrey and John (JWH)

It was good hearing from John again. I miss him being close by since he moved to Michigan. Of course I have since moved to Buchanan for the same reason. So our daughter can care for us in our old age. I received another email from him following his receiving the proof copy of Volume 84.

My dear cousin Leroy: Well you have done another great issue. I may not be too swift, but I did see a couple of things that I question on page 1. On the masthead at the top it says something like "... including the families of:". I may have missed something but did not see the other family spellings. Also near the bottom you used the word "ap". I believe it is "App" Just check it out to know for sure.

Glad you are feeling better and are back in the harness again, at least part time.

Cousin, John Henson

I replied: "John, Of course you are right and I thank you for pointing those things out. One of the reasons I send you the proof copy is for that very thing. You still have "printer's ink" flowing in those viens, even if there is Dedmon blood there also." Thanks again, Cuz Leroy

John is one of my proof readers and a great encourager. He has printed every newsletter and keeps them in notebooks for reference. Actually we are related on both my father and mother's side of the family. -Leroy

JEWELLEDMONTAYLOR

Jewell Agness Dedmon Taylor, age 97 passed away June 28, 2013 in Senatobia, Mississippi. She was preceded in death by her husband Bruce Henry Taylor, her parents Asa Calvin Dedmon, Anna Mae Sheets Dedmon and a son Bruce Wayne Taylor. She also was preceded in death by her brothers Calvin Franklin Dedmon, Paul Albert Dedmon and A. C. Dedmon. She is survived by her daughters Wanda (Floyd) Baker of Huron, Tennessee; Dorthory Sparks of Michigan; and Virginia (Walter) Wise of Bartlett, Tennessee. Sveral grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. Private graveside services will be July 01, 2013 at Lawrence Memorial Cemetary, Walnut Ridge, Lawrence County, Arkansas at 11 A.M

I have searched in vain for Asa Calvin Dedmon. Maybe some of you Arkansas or Mississipi Dedmons can help find him. There are two or maybe three distinct Deadman lines we have not be able to connect but I still think they do. Christopher Deadman's parents remain a mystery although his ancestry goes back to the same place in England (Suffolk) that John Deadman does. We may be only one generation away from connecting the two. Contact me if you have any information.

KELLY RAYFIELD

(1930-2007)

Mr. Rayfield was reired from Lockheed Martin in Greenville, SC, and a member of the Northside

Baptist Church in Greenville. He was a veteran of the U. S. Army where he was in the Medic Corp.

Mr. Rayfield is survived by a son and wife; Tony & Kay Rayfield of Mooresboro, NC, Darrell Rayfield of Easley, SC, a daughter and husband Kay Rayfield Clay and Mike of Pelzer, SC. He is also survived by three sisters; Bonnie Ward of Waco, NC, Willie Rayfield of Mooresville, NC and Jessie Rayfield of Concord, NC, a sister-in-law Maggie Rayfield of Cherryville, NC, Grandchildren; Glenda Ogren, Tonya Rayfield, Tony Curtis Rayfield Jr., Cassandra Foxx & Dewayne Rayfield, 9 great grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

Annie Bell Dedmon was the daughter of John Daniel and Mattie Grey Dedmon and the granddaughter of William Leroy Pickney and Fannie Bell Lutz Dedmon. She was a descendent of the Revolutionary War vetren, Mark Dedmon, who fought in the battle of Cowpens and Kings Mountain as well as a number of Indian scrimmages. He is the firs known to spell the surname DEDMON.

JOHN C. DEADMAN

John Corbin Deadman Died January 10, 2014 at the age of 90 surrounded by his family. John was born July 19, 1923 in Indiana but was raised in Carbondale, Ill. He enlisted in the U.S. Army in December 1942 and was discharged March 1946 with the rank of sergeant. He married Mary Joan Montgomery on June 27, 1953. They were blessed with six children Mark, Mary (Dan), Paul (Yolanda), Ann, Nancy (Jason), John (Viola), 14 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. He graduated from Southern Illinois University in 1948. In 1954, he graduated from Chicago-Kent College of Law. He was admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1954 and the Texas Bar in 1957. He spent his entire business career in the insurance business, primarily as an underwriter. He was a member of SIRS, the Friends of the Marin Libraries, The Marin County Genealogical Society and spent some 15 years making deliveries for Meals on Wheels. Among the many pleasures of retirement, he was especially appreciative of not having to wear a necktie, which he considered an instrument of torture as well as a symbol (probably Republican) of conformity. There will be no funeral services and burial will be private. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Petaluma.

Published in Marin Independent Journal on Jan. 14, 2014

There are many family members in Indiana and Illinois. We have yet failed to make the connection needed to know exactly where they are on the family tree. There are several possibilities but as of yet I have not found proof. (LD)

Graveside services will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, September 10, 2013 in the Dailey Hills Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 10 – 11 a.m. on Tuesday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 7272 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, TX 75231 (800) 242-8721. Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

Mildred was married to Thomas (Buddy) Vaughn, the grandson to Harriett Evelyn Dedmon, daughter of Joseph and Martha (Black) Dedmon. It never ceases to amaze me at the number of kin folks I have living near me and never meet them. Such is the case with Mildred. (LD)
