DEADMAN WALKING, TALKING OR WRITING

“We are still family”

Dead Man Walking is a 1995 American crime drama film starring Susan Sarandon and Sean Penn, and co-produced and directed by Tim Robbins, who adapted the screenplay from the non-fiction book of the same name. A work of non-fiction by Sister Helen Prejean, a Roman Catholic nun and one of the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Medaille. An account based on her work as a spiritual adviser to two convicted murderers on Death Row, the book is set at the Louisiana State Penitentiary (Angola) in West Feliciana Parish, Louisiana. It examines moral issues related to the death penalty. The chosen title has been used to describe other situations. Put to music some of the lyrics go like this, “I hear the angels talking talking talking, Now I'm a dead man walking walking walking, I hear the angels talking talking talking, Now I'm a dead man ... I'm a breathing, talking, Dead man, walking.”

I think it is pretty much accepted that our family came to this country with the surname D-E-A-D-M-A-N. From which we have a number of different spellings. I don't know how much faith to put into the websites claiming origin to surnames, but this is the one most of us accept: (Surname: Deadman) “In spite of its rather sinister appearance, this English surname of early medieval origins, has absolutely nothing to do with any death or destruction. It is locational and one of a number of dialectal corruptions of the Norfolk village name of Debenham, near the city of Norwich. It is true that there are a number of places such as Deadwin Clough, Deadmans Croft, and Deadmans Coppice, found in the counties of Lancashire, Yorkshire and Gloucestershire respectively, which are grim recordings of some foul deed in ancient times, but no evidence exists to suggest that any of them gave rise to a later surname development. In this case the name development leading to the modern surname spellings, are well documented and have followed the path of de Debenham to Debenham, to Dedman, Debnam, and Deadman, all versions which are still to be found in modern times. Examples of the recordings include Edward Debnam at St. Michael's church, Cornhill, London in 1669, Robert Debnam of Suffolk in 1674, and Martha Harris, given as being the sister of Samuel Deadman, buried at the church of St Dionis Backchurch, city of London, in 1688. The first recorded spelling of the family name is believed to be that of John de Debenham. This was dated 1273, in the 'Pipe Rolls' of Yorkshire during the reign of King Edward 1st. He was known by the nickname of 'The Hammer of the Scots', and reigned 1272 - 1307. Throughout the centuries, surnames in every country have continued to "develop" often leading to astonishing variants of the original spelling.”

I am not really sure how many variations of spelling we have today, but here are some of the ones I know. Since FindAGrave.com is one of, if not the best source for family records, I am going to list the name and how many times of each we have on record. (DEDMON - 1,040) (DEDMAN - 987) (DEADMAN - 417) (DEADMOND - 267) (DEADMON - 186) (DEDMOND - 79) (DADMAN - 13) (DEDMONDT - 5) (DEDMONT - 3) (DEDMEN - 2) Here are some other names that tend to move further away from our normal spellings, but I have found some of these to be in our family. As I mentioned in the previous newsletter (Volume 97) the father of William Dedman is listed as David Dittman. I present these as other possibilities to search. (DITTMAN - 1,857) (DITMAN - 283) (DETMAN - 70) (DODMAN - 156). Ancestry.com has (7) listings for Dedmont, (3) of those list the father as Liscome Daudmont, which is of French origin.

It was around 1955 and we were playing Bradley County in Cleveland, TN. We were referred to as the "B" team or Jr. Varsity. To play on the Rossville, Georgia high school football team in the mid 50s, you had to be professional material. We were the Georgia AA champions in '54 and co-champions in '55. Not too many actually made the "Big Time", however, several received scholarships to renown college teams.

One pro that comes to mind is Bobby Scott, although he came along about ten years after I graduated. He was all-state 1st team played QB at Tennessee 1969 & 70 and played with New Orleans Saints 11 years NFL. He was second on the Saints depth chart behind Archie Manning. In 1976, Manning had surgery on his throwing shoulder and Scott had the opportunity to start. Unfortunately, during a televised game he tripped over a television cable and blew out a knee which ended his season. He then played for the New Jersey Generals and Chicago Blitz of the United States Football League (USFL) in 1983.

Others that played for Rossville include, Pete Brown, 1948 all-state in football & basketball in high school. He played for Georgia Tech as a center, All-American AP 1st team 1952. He was on the Georgia Tech national champion undefeated team and played for San Francisco 49ers NFL and a member of the Ga. sports Hall of Fame. Topsy Vann, class AA all-state 1st team Quarterback and went on to Georgia Tech as Quarterback and led Tech to 10-1 season in 1956 ranked 4th in nation. He also played baseball at Tech as a catcher where Tech was SEC champions 1957. He came back to Rossville and coached the baseball team to 1959 AA state championship. Doug Veazey, running back, played football and baseball at Georgia Tech in 1959. He also wrote book a book "Marching through Georgia". The book was about Rossville's 1954 state championship team in which Rossville, the smallest student enrollment ever to win Georgia highest football classification. Rossville was playing AA when in fact they where a class B or C size school. If I remember correctly Doug's father played professional baseball. Jim Reynolds, went to Auburn. Billy Baker, QB 1954 & 55 played at Furman and was a Rhodes Scholar. His brother, Harold "Wink" Baker, QB 1959, went on to East Tennessee State University, where he was named as a Little All-American quarterback and a short time in the Cadanian Football League. Doug Fury, RB all-state 1962 & 63 played at Brigham Young. Nelson Bowers, all-state 1962 played at Georgia. Dickey Clark, 1st team all-state played at Georgia. Dennis Bradshaw, QB all-state 1976 played at Memphis state. I know there are others, but these are the ones I could find.

Well, go back to Bradley County and 1955. I don't remember a lot about that game as I spent most of it flat of my back in the locker room. In those days we didn't have the offense and defense individuals, you played both. On offense I was a tackle, which sounds strange as you did not tackle on offense. On defense, I was a guard and sometimes linebacker. On this night I lined up in the gap between their center and guard. On the first play, I sacked the quarterback, on the second play, I sacked the quarterback. On the third play as I broke though the offenseve line, my lights went out and I woke up during the fourth quarter. We had a good trainer and he stayed with me and assured the coach, I was just "out of it" but nothing appeared to be seriously wrong. As it turned out my nose was broken, but that healed on its own and nothing was ever done.

When I went for my Sinuplasty procudure, recently, they did a cat scan of my nose and sinus cavaiites. It seems my main blockage was caused by that football injury in 1955 and I have suffered with it all my adult life. The doctor said he straightened and opened the passage way in my nostril and that I should begin to feel better soon. As I am writing this article, it is the morning after and I feel as though I came in second place in a boxing match. I hope it works. If it does, I am going to kick myself for waiting so long. If it don't, I feel as if I may kick the doctor. Guess we will see.

HUTCHESON MEMORIAL FIELD "The Home of the Rossville Bulldogs"

The last game was played here on on Oct. 2, 2008, the 60th anniversary of the first Homecoming Game at Rossville High School. Rossville and Chattanooga Valley merged in 1989 forming the Ridgeland High School.

Eppy Alonzo Dedmon

I received the picture below from Theresa May Dedmon Senecal, the daughter of Roy Washington Dedmon and Maria Teresa Torres. Roy was the son of Eppy Alonzo Dedmon and Naomi Lankford. It was good to receive it and publish it for our readers. There has been some confusion attached to this branch and it is good to get help to sort it out. I always thought Eppy married Cecile Griffith first, then Naomi, but I see that was not right. Eppy was the son of Robert (Bob) Alvin Dedmon and Ida Lee Cordell. He had three brothers and one sister. Eppy's descendants are the only ones I have met personally, (not all, but most). I did correspond with some of his son, James Lee Dedmond's descendants, but have lost touch with them.

Roy Washington Dedmon was born to Eppy Alonzo Dedmon and Naomi Lankford in 1923. Naomi passed away in 1924. Eppy married Cecile Lee Griffith in 1929 and they had four children, Harrison Alonzo, Edward Lavern, Jeanett Lee and Raymond Robert. Eppy passed away in 1993 and Cecile in 1994, they are both buried in Lutz Cemetery; Lutz, Hillsborough County, FL.

Roy Washington married Virginia McCully, they had two children: Billy and Marcella Mae. Roy married Maria Teresa Torres November 15, 1959. They had two children: Theresa May and Roy Joseph. This picture was taken prior to 1993, the year Eppy passed away.

I have discovered at least five major Deadman branches that we have not been able to connect. If you have information on any of the Deadman family branches, please submit.

From the Mail Bag

Hi Leroy,
My name is Shannon Templeton Payton, daughter of Lebron Templeton. You have done an amazing job with your website and family tree. When I first began my research I kept coming across the name Dedmon and wondered who in the heck they were. Well now I feel like I have known them all my life. I have read so many stories and just captivated by the history. I did not grow up with the Templeton's but I did spend some time with my grandparents (Ruth and Dewey) on occasion. My father (Lebron) has become terminally ill and I have been more involved as of late. Even having weekly conversations with my uncle Wayne who is a huge wealth of knowledge on who is who. He is truly a sweetheart and I love him to death.

I have hit a roadblock, sort of, with this Mary Hannah Dedmon as it seems most everyone has the same problem. I was wondering if there were any documents that have been found proving who her parents were? I see your notes about why you believe she was the daughter of William. But when I put all that info into my Geni website it looks crazy! Was there really 2 Mary Polly Dedmon's? I will post what it looks like on my tree because I am new at this and it would be easier than me trying to explain. But the main reason this is a big deal to me is because this Running Deer and Jacob Wolfe would be my grandparents rather than aunts or uncles? I have been trying to find some sort of inkling of Native American history on my mother's side because there is so many stories but I can't find anything much on my grandparents. So when I came across this I was quite surprised. Feel free to email me back anytime. I just seen one of your newsletters today and was very impressed. I would love to somehow subscribe to that! Thanks so much! - Shannon Payton

ATTENTION

I am in the process of compiling information for Vol. 100 of THE DEDMON CONNECTION and invite any or all of our readers to submit material to be used. Send to me via email at: leroydedmon@gmail.com

Mary Hannah Dedmon was my Mother's great grandmother. She married David McArthur Dickson after she had four boys, whose father is unknown. However, David claimed to be the father of the fourth child, Joseph, who went by the name of Calvin Dedmon Dickson. He was born in 1846 four years prior to the marriage of David and Hannah. Hannah was either the daughter of William or Thomas Dedmon. It really does not change much either way. The reason I accept her as the daughter is simply based on my mother saying that she was always told Hannah was the sister of William D. Dedmon, the son of William and Margaret Dedmon.

*The information that caused some to conclude she was the daughter of Thomas is based on her coming to Georgia with her children and Thomas and Mary Polly Linkhorn. As I mentioned previously either situation does not make much difference as she married David Dickson and that is her connection to the Templeton family, as her grandson. George Dickson married Pearl Templeton (they are my grandparents). I suppose it would make a difference in relationship to the Indian connection as Running Deer would be Mary Hannah's grandmother rather than her aunt. However Thomas and Mary Polly had another daughter named Mary Polly born September 21, 1815. Mary Hannah was born November 29, 1817. I guess you could have two daughters with the same name. As to the question, "Are there two Mary Polly Dedmons?" The answer is no....there are at least 5 that we know about.

I didn't think about this connection to the claims of Native American in Volume 93. Running Deer is, no doubt, Native American and she is connected to the Dedmon family, but not exactly sure if there is blood relationship to my side of the family.

Shannon's grandfather, Dewey Templeton, was my second cousin. but I was never around him much. He was 12 years older than me and in the service by the time I was 8-10 years old. Dewey and Ruth married in 1955. I never knew their children, which are: Leon David, Lebron Keith, (Shannon's father) and Tettry Wayne. Probably the Templeton cousin I knew best growing up was her great uncle, Wayne, as he was just three months younger than me. Her mother was Janet Peters and there is kinship between, the Peters, Blacks, Dedmons, Dicksons and maybe even the Capeharts.

It was good hearing from Shannon and I will add her to the list that receives notifications of the newsletters. Since receiving her letter, her father has passed away (See obituary on page 6) -Leroy

TEMPLETON FAMILY

I don't remember who sent me this and where it was taken, Maybe someone will recognize it and let me know. --Leroy

GEORGE LEROY "LEE" TEMPLETON

George Leroy Templeton was born on July 8, 1862, in Catoosa County, Georgia, to George Eakin Templeton and Nancy Mahallie Langston. He married Frances Elizabeth (Lizzie) Greene on July 10, 1884. They had five children in 18 years. Esther Mahallie Templeton Dixon (1885 - 1971), Pearl Victoria Templeton Dickson Vess (1889 - 1972), Lora Beatrice Templeton (1896 - 1986), Joseph Elgin Templeton (1898 - 1987), and George Leroy Templeton, Jr. (1903). George, Jr. died when he was 3 days old and is buried somewhere in Arkansas. The family was traveling to Texas to visit relatives and I am not sure if it was on the way there or coming home, when the baby was born.

Lee died on June 13, 1935, in Catoosa County, Georgia, at the age of 72, and is buried at Dogwood Valley Cemetery in Catoosa County. (Find A Grave Memorial# 107746340). His wife Lizzie died 25 years before him on October 27, 1910. She is also buried at Dogwood. (Find A Grave Memorial# 107746334)

Esther married Luther Mathis Dixon, and Lora never married. Pearl, was my grandmother and she married George Dickson (my grandfather). After he died, Pearl married Olan Vess.

Joseph Elgin married Rosa Maybell Black, the daughter of Sarah Rachael Dickson and Joseph Henderson Black. Sarah was my mother's aunt, so we are kin to this Templeton family on both sides. According to Family Tree Maker, Mildred Templeton Smith (obituary next column) was my 1st cousin once removed, 2nd cousin, 3rd cousin once removed, 4th cousin, 13th cousin once removed and 14th cousin. So we must be kin.

EPY A. DEDMON

Eppy Alonzo Dedmon was born in Walker County, GA at Mission Ridge. He and his brothers were placed in the Bonnie Oaks Orphanage in Chattanooga, TN. He married Naomi Lankford July 8, 1920, at Walker Co., GA. They had one child, Roy Washington Dedmon.

He was in the U.S. Marine Corps (1924-1928). He served in the Nicaraguan Conflict. He was assigned to the Presidential Guard and went with President Calvin Coolidge when he would go on the Presidential Yacht, THE MAYFLOWER. At one point during his Marine experience he raced against Jesse Owens and outran him! That was prior to Jesse Owens' Olympics Gold Medal.

He was chosen to be on the Washington Senators Baseball team, but injured his wrist throwing a stone at a rabbit before the season began and was unable to make the season start. That was about the time he met Cecil Lee Griffith (they married in 1929 in Chattanooga). They were married 64 years.

He was in the grocery business (Red Food Stores in Chattanooga) and retired from Winn Dixie Stores in Florida. He died in Tampa, Florida at the age of 89. He was an avid coin collector and a member of Land O' Lakes Baptist Church.
